Dear Howard,

Al Cuniff, who lives in a Baltimore suburb and comes here from time to time in his JFK assassination interest, told me he'd phoned and spoken to you. Last I'd heard you said you'd be moving to L.A. That you did not does not mean you have not moved so I write you at the office.

Cuniff said that you are keeping your files in storage in Philadelphia.

If you do not anticipate any need for them, would you like to consider offering them to Hood? Hine will be there, some are, and Meagher's are already there.

They have a fine, new state-of-the art library just opened this year, formal dedication this coming semester.

Aside from a write-off you could save storage charges.

And they might be of usefulness.

Hope all is going well with you.

Our best,

Harold
